

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

March 2020 e-News

Greetings, FPC Church Family!

We are resurrecting the FPC e-News in order to keep in touch. We miss you all and hope and pray to soon be back together. Remember, God is in control and we are safe in His arms.

In lieu of ordering Easter memorial flowers this year, we will simply be printing memorials to your loved ones in the Easter e-News or Newsletter. Use the link above to submit your memorial.

Do your kiddos need something to do? The link above will take you to some fun activities from Children's Worship Bulletins. Another great option can be found here.

From Pastor Aaron

Last Sunday's Worship Service

Many thanks to the members of this past week's worship team who recorded a special online service for Sunday morning. If you missed it, you can still see it here.

During this time, the work of the church continues. We are still caring for those in need. The Manna Food Pantry continues to serve those in need of food and home goods, and our Deacons' Fund helps with utilities, rent, and other material items. As people look to the church as a trusted resource, FPC is dependent on your generosity. Checks can be mailed to the church or to Jane H. (see the directory for her address), or you may contribute online through the Eoffering, choosing specifically where you want your contribution to go.

Thank you so very much.

Dealing with the "New Normal"

Do you need a prescription delivered?
Groceries? Mail?

You are in luck! FPC is offering a free delivery service! Simply call the church office and leave a message (it goes immediately to Janine's phone) or email your request and we'll call you and set it up. Your items will be there before you know it.

Words of Encouragement

Q & A: "How Are You Coping?"

It is so nice to be able to hang out with my family.

--Jeff Miller

We're staying positive. He never leaves us or forsakes us! He always has our backs. He gives us what we need when we need it.

--Louise Berrier

Things are looking better. The Polar Bar is open!

--Rick Burton

We have pickle ball set up in our basement.

--John Eichelberger

We're hanging in there, doing what God wants us to, although we're not on the beach.

--Larry Miller
